GASOLENE VESSEL IS DESTROYED

Eight Persons Injured, Two of Them Seriously-Policeman Dismissed.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., September 26.—Eight persons were injured, two of them seriously, and five bags of mail were destroyed early this morning, when the gasolene vessel Edna May blew up soon after leaving Manteo, N. C., for ifatteras and towns along the sound. The vessel was entirely destroyed. It caught on fire from the explosion, and soon went down in the harbor. Enginer Casey and Miss Bessle Midget both of Manteo, sustained serious injuries. Both were badly burned by the blazing gasolene. The keeper of the Chicamicomico Light came to the rescue of those imperiled, and but for his efforts Miss Midgett would have drowned. News of the tragedy was reported by wireless to the Weather Bureau at Cape Henry.

Mayor James G. Riddick this after-less to the Weather Bureau at Cape Henry.

Mayor James G. Riddick this afternoon dismissed Bicycle Policeman Harry Wright after an investigation of the charges of absenting himself from duty without leave, being under the influence of liquor, and improfar relations with a woman, Daniel Coleman, attorney for Wright, gave notice of appeal to the Board of Control.

Agent of Unlicensed Benefit Association Sentenced to Roads.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., Septemoer 28.—Friday of this week is set by Judge Peebles in Wake Superior Court for the trial of L. J. Norfis for the murder of J. B. Bissett in the woods east of Raleigh on the night of August 12. The grand jury has returned the true bill, and a special venire of seventy-five men has been summoned to appear, from which to select the jury to try Norfis for his life. His counsel insist that they will have no trouble in proving an alibi for their client. Bart M. Catling is leading counsel for the trial. In the killing of Bissett the murderer slipped into the bushes where he was and shot him before he had any opportunity to defend himself, so that first degree murder is the only verdict that can be returned by a jury in the event the crime is fixed upon any one.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., September 25.—In an automobile accident near Buchanan to-day, a young man named Richard Richardson, of New York City, was killed, and one of two brothers, sons of A. B. Trask, had his arm badly crushed. The Trask brothers, traveling South in a car own I by their In South in a car own I by their father, of New York City, met Richardson on their way. They picked him up, he being an old schoolmate. Before they arrived at Buchanan, they reached a point in the road off it the national highway, near Purgatory. There is a sharp curve, and one of the Trask brothers, who was driving, saw a large maple tree, which appeared to be in the centre of the thoroughfare. He ran his car out of the way of the obstacle and went over an embankment, the nachine turning turtle. Richardson lived a few moments after the accident, and expressed a wish that he be buried in the county, near the scene of the mishap, saying he had no friends.
